

We are Part of a Global Initiative

Women United is part of a global network of more than 55,000 women united to advance the common good in our communities and create a better life for all.

Locally, Women United is an affinity group of the United Way of Aiken County. However, funds distributed by Women United are not limited to current member agencies. Rather any 501(c)(3) organization operating in Aiken County that provides services advancing the primary mission of Women United may apply for financial assistance through our grant application process.

Who We Are

Women United is a new kind of philanthropy based on a belief in the collective power of women to improve the lives of Aiken County's women and children.

Founded in 2015, Women United is dedicated to transforming Aiken through active and specific philanthropic investment to tackle our community's challenges. Designated funds collected from fundraising activities are used to award grants that advance the health, safety, education and economic status of Aiken County's women and children.

Educational opportunities are offered to our membership to help each of us become better informed and more effective donors.

Every member brings different talents to our cause. Whether you bring your skills, personal contacts, community knowledge or time, you can make a difference.

Membership

Women United is designed to benefit its members as well as our community. We offer an opportunity to:

- Be a leading force for positive change through sound and informed giving
- Learn more about our community's needs and how to give wisely
- Get to know and work with women who care about our community
- Tailor your involvement to fit your personal circumstances and priorities

Your contribution of $500 or more to United Way of Aiken County qualifies you for membership. Decisions on grant awards made by Women United will be made by its membership. Through leadership, networking and advocacy, we can harness the power of women to improve Aiken County.
